At the Church of England Education Office, our aim is to ensure 'that where a child lives has no bearing on the quality of teaching they receive'. This is why we are encouraging teachers in small and rural schools to apply for our development programmes.

The CofE will pay £200 when a teacher from a school with less than 600 pupils signs up. <https://www.cefel.org.uk/npq/>

“Taking the NPQ has changed my approach to everyday teaching. I found that within the modules there has been some really interesting evidence based practices that I can implement straight away into my classroom” - Sophie, Assistant Leader of Teaching and Learning
