

Dr Krish Kandiah

MEDIA

Dr Kandiah is a regular broadcaster on a range of subjects including:

Refugee Resettlement
Child Welfare Reform
Faith and Public Life
Justice and Equality
Civil Society Engagement
Film and Culture

He has been a regular guest on BBC Breakfast, the Zoe Ball breakfast show on BBC Radio 2 and has appeared on BBC News 24, The Today Programme, Goggle Box and Sky News, Woman's Hour and more...

WRITING

Dr Kandiah has written opinion pieces for The Times, The Guardian, The Sunday Times, The Express, The Spectator, Christianity Today and more...

THE GUARDIAN: No one should age out of care
SPECTATOR: Benedict Cumberbatch's Courier
SPECTATOR: An Interview with Jesus
THE TIMES: Why the government's Rwanda programme
SPECTATOR: There's more to the Queen's Gambit
CT: The Case Against Orphanages

KEYNOTE

Krish is an exceptional public speaker and has given talks at:

The Royal Albert Hall
TEDxOxford
The GooglePlex
Apple HQ
The House of Lords
The Global Leadership Summit
Albanian Parliament
St Paul's Cathedral
GCHQ

GLOBAL

Dr Kandiah is a Global Ambassador for World Vision International.

He has organised and spoken at major global conferences and summits including: The Global Leadership Summit , Q Conference, Amplify,

He designed, organised and chaired the first Transatlantic Learning Summit between the US and English governments on adoption innovation and another on ending racial disparity in adoption.

Dr Kandiah organised and chaired the Global Children in Care Summit which brought together care experienced young people, government leaders and NGO representatives from 29 countries.

REFUGEES

Krish is the founder of The Sanctuary Foundation. A charity supporting refugees to find welcome, work and worthwhile housing in the UK. He is recognised as an expert in refugee resettlement , child welfare reform, educational innovation and civil society mobilisation.

